NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Frank Keogh will ride at New Orleans for the stable that Al Luzader is training for Morgat and Newman of Cleveland.

Stable room at the Fair Grounds track at New Orleans now is at a premium, all the available stalls being filled, but work is being rushed to get more in condition for occupancy and it is stated that all newcomers will be taken care of as fast as they arrive.

William Hogan is developing Election Bet as a jumper for W. R. Coe, whose horses race in the name of the Shoshone stable. She shows much promise. Jerry Carroll will continue to train Mr. Coe's flat racers, of which Hauberk is the best, Hauberk will be nominated for the Kentucky Derby this season. Since his retirement from racing last season, Hauberk has grown and developed wonder fully.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., January S.—John E. Madden has cased Plaudit to John H. Morris and he will stand it Bosque Bonita Farm.

Irving H. Wheateroft has sold the English stallion Brummel to John S. Barbee.

The first foal to be reported in 1915 is a sister to the Latonia Derby winner, John Gund, by Peep o' Day—My Gyps at J. S. Barbee's Glen Helen Farm.

Thomas Monahan of New York, this week became the owner of April's Lady, which is in foal to his stallion Textile, the purchase having been made for him by Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield of Kingston Farm.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF 1914

The list of thirty chief money-winning two-year-olds of last year presents among other things an interesting exposition of the most successful of our present-day breeding lines, old favorites and promising young aspirants vieing in a pleasing way. Thus the well-established Star Shoot and the rising young sire, Peter Quince, each lave three representatives in this aristocratic list. Those having two each are the old-timers, Voter, Ogden, Peep o'Dav and Broomstick, and the newcomers, Sir Wilfred and Fair Piay. This leaves twelve with one each, of which Ben Brush, Galveston, Disguise, Yankee, Cunard, Martinet and McGee have already won fame as sires, leaving Jim Gaffuey, Celt, Helmet and Ultimus to represent the division young in stud service, but pressing lustily and effectively for recognition. The strong line of Ibomino figures prominently through Disguise, Peter Quince, Celt and Ultimus, and who can doubt that they will soon be reinforced by the advent of Colin in similar lists? Undoubtedly some capital two-year-olds figured in last year's racing. The usual disappointments will no doubt that they therefore the present product of the product o

HORSES THAT WON $10,000 FOR P. J. MILES

Be lacked considerable of being such a race horse as his distinguished sister, Flying Fairy, still on many occasions he showed that he could race to good purpose and proved a profitable servant to P. J. Miles. He alone won more money in 1914 than all the Miles horses won in 1913, so he deservedly ranks as the star of the stable and in high esteem as a bread winner. Mud Sill and King Box were two more selling platers that raced well and profitably for their owner, while Cordie F, and old Facada at least paid their way. A man able to do his own training, as Miles does, is doing quite well in a business sense to win over $10,000 with a small stable of platers and a big share of the amount should represent a clear profit. The record of the Miles stable for 1914 is:

JOCKEY IS SUSPENDED FOR TWENTY DAYS.

O'Brien Is Disciplined at Juarez for Trying to Retard King Worth by Grasping Reins.

tard King Worth by Grasping Reins.

El Paso, Tex., January 8.—It was another pleasant day and the track at Juarez showed further improvement. It is now only a question of a day or two when it will be at its best.

The opening race brought a surprise in the victory of Aswan, which raced disappointingly in his previous start. As good as 20 to 1 was laid against him today. Blacksheep, one of the choices, accounted for the second race after Nobby had done the pacemaking.

The Cinder, which ruled equal choice with Pontefract, worked his way up to an easy victory in the third over Lady Mint, with Pontefract third.

The fourth was the most promising race of the day, from the standpoint of class. It resulted in a head victory for Furlong, whose previous efforts here have not been up to what was expected from him. He came from far back in today's race to wrest the purse from Orimar Lad in an exciting finish. King Worth, one of the early pacemakers, lasted for third money.

J. W. Fuller's colors were carried to victory in the fifth race by Doll Boy. He was in front from start to finish and gamely withstood end challenges from Choctaw and Nifty. All three placed horses were quoted at liberal odds.

The closing dash was won by Transact, a lukewarm favorite. He was within striking distance from the start and drew away after jockey Mathews sent him into the lead. Kelsetta beat Spindle for second money in a hard drive.

Patrol Judge Dwyer reported that jockey O'Brien, on Besom, grasped King Worth's reins on the far turn during the running of the fourth race. Jockey Gentry corroborated the report and the Stewards suspended O'Brien for twenty days.

Jockey Hartwell was taken ill early in the day and his engagements were cancelled.

Recent work-outs of horses in training at Juarez over a slow track were as follows.

Augustus Henize—Half mile in 59.

Ask Ma—Half mile in 53.

RACING GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, January S.—The Frederick Johnson horses are wintering at Belmont Park and, with those of C. K. G. Billings, are doing exceedingly well. Lampoon has developed into a magnificent looking three-year-old. Top.o' th' Morning has also filled out considerably and attracts the attention of the horsemen. There are several likely two-year-olds in the string that J. P. Mayberry has in his olds in the string that J. P. Mayberry has in his care.

Thomas Healey has fewer two-year-olds to fit for Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association, than usual. There are only half a dozen in his care at Belmont Park, but they are a likely looking lot and will undoubtedly be heard from early. Mr. Wilson made a few purchases last year for the reason that he has been breeding himself and he will have all the youngsters he will require next season. He has a number of richly-bred matrons that raced for him, and Olambala is at the head of his stud.

The horses of Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable have been moved from Belmont Park to a farm that Mrs. Whitney has obtained near Red Bank, N. J. Jimmy Owens is fitting the stable there and one of his best green prospects is Al Reeves, a three-year-old that was purchased from the Brookside Stable last summer. This youngster has taken to jumping naturally and barring accidents, will be one of the early winners this season through the field.

"Miss Chamblet's" Chupadero is at Belmont Park and shows no ill effects from his strenuous campaign of last season. He was beyond doubt the best three-year-old jumper shown last year, and he was campaigned late in the fall under heavy weights. He thrived on the drilling and right now is a better looking horse than he was when he was first put to cross-country racing. Chupadero was one of seven horses that John L. Coyle bought at Juarce last winter. He disposed of the other six and proved himself a good judge when he kept the son of Sam Phillips.

George M. Odom, who was desperately sick in Maryland, is about again and looking almost as good as ever. It is probable that Mr. Hancock, his employer, will begin his racing for 1915 in Kentucky.

The Quincy Stable also will probably make its racing start for 1915 in Kentucky. Trojan, winner of the Fathurity, has been doing exceedingly well since being thrown out of training. Double Eagle, winner of the Walden, has also improved and it is probable that both of them will be po

SEEMED LIKE OLD TIMES

BIG CROWD PATRONIZES RACING AT NEW ORLEANS FAIR GROUNDS.

Visitors Gathered for Centennial Celebration of Battle of New Orleans Help to Swell the Attendance-Tom Caro Wins Juvenile Dash.

New Orleans, La., January 8.—There was no perceptible difference from old times at the Fair Grounds today, when an attendance equaling that of any former off-day gathering witnessed the racing. In the throng were many first time visitors, who are here for the centennial anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans, which began today. Several big eastern operators arrived last night and took part in the pahu garden action, accounting for more stable prices being offered.

The card was well balanced and contributed some excellent sport. Poor riding was in several instances responsible for the failure of the best horses. The most notable instance in which the best racer was beaten because of incompetency on the part of the rider came with the closing dash, when Reno, an overwhelming choice, failed to place. She was handled by the dinjuntive and inexperienced Urquiart, who was of no assistance whatever to her when the critical stage came. Urquiart also contributed to Kate K.'s defeat in the preceding race in which, because of his inexperience, that mare was beaten by Bayberry Candle. Another incompetent effort was that of Hipphy, who had the mount on Our Ren, favorite for the third race. He piloted her all over the course and his effort was so bad that Judge Murphy at once issued a ruling restricting his services to that of his contract employer, F. Musante, for the remainder of the meeting.

The inner post position again played a prominent part in the result of the juvenile dash, for it enabled Tom Caro to obtain an advantage that the others could not overcome, and he won rather handily with Paymaster in second place and Delivery third. The latter was on the extreme outside at the start and suffered some interference after the break record for three-eighths of a mile from 36 to 35%. The track record for one mile was equaled when Bayberry Candle ran the distance in 1:39. The former Bradley filly is at present enjoying rare form and should be a factor in better company. She was one of two winning favorites, the other on sixin races.

Jockey McTaggart was suspended for three days by the starter for disobedience at the post in the fifth race.

Today's arrivals from New York included J. E., Ryan, a well-known layer, and Joe Hayman. Both report that there will be a big influx of easterners here next week. They are immensely impressed with the magnitude of the revival and stated that it appeared like old times.

W. G. Yanke's racers will be here Saturday, according to advices from the express people having the shipment in charge. Jockey W. W. Taylor will come from El Paso and will do most of the Yanke stable riding.

John W. Schorr will return to his home in Memphis on a business mission and will come back later. Horsemen were given additional encouragement today by advices from Hot Springs that a bill to legalize racing in the Vapor city would be introduced at the coming session of the legislature, which conlegalize racing in the Vapor city would be introduced at the coming session of the legislature, which con-venes about January 21. The Business Men's League of Hot Springs is behind the movement to restore the racing and the merchants and citizens of Hot Springs are eager to see the horses again racing over the palatial Oaklawn course.

VICTIM OF SHOOTING CHICAGO BOOKMAKER.

It transpires that the Jerry Daly who was shot and killed by a Cuban following an altercation in a Havana hotel last Tuesday, was the old time Chicago bookmaker of that name. United States Consul General Rodders cabled to friends of the dead man in this city asking that members of his family be notified of the tragedy.

Daly was well known to followers of the races in this country. He made books at Harlem, Hawthorne, and Washington Park when the sport flourished here. At one time he was wealthy, but his Chicago friends believe he lost or gave away most of his money, with which he was most generous.

most of his money, with which he was most generous.

Daly made his first big money on concessions with the John Robinson circus. Later he ran shows with Frank Sweeny, now of the Hagenback shows. GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

With a twofold object in view, the German communication neither affirms nor density in the content of the con be satisfied unless the reparation includes the release of the British consul who was seized in the Italian consulate, the punishment of the violators of the consulate, and a military salute to the flag. The Marquis of Crewe announced in the British house of lords today that it was the definite opinion of the admiralty that the battleship Formidable was sunk in the English channel on Jan. 1 with a loss of more than 500 men. The British admiralty in its earlier reports said it was unable to state whether the disaster had been caused by a mine or a torpedo. It is officially reported in Paris that Persia has sent an ultimatum to Turkey demanding that she withdraw the Kurd troops from Persian territory, where they have penetrated from their frontier lines. Two Russian monitors have destroyed the hull of a 2,500-ton vessel and sunk it in the mouth of the Danube near Sulima, with the object of preventing the navigation of the river toward Servia. A Madrid dispatch saysthe German auxiliary cruiser Otavi has been interned at Las Palmas, Canary Islands. The Otavi was reported on Dec. 3 at Pernambuco. It is thought she was used by the cruiser Karlsruhe as a supply ship. Further evidences that a German raid on England, probably by Zeppelins with escorting aeroplanes, is expected was shown yesterday when it became known that Lord Roseberry, acting in his official capacity as lord lieutenant of Midothian, had issued instructions to the population regarding their action in case of a German hostile movement. Civilians are sternly urged to refrain from any hostile actions, but to remain quiefly in their homes and let the regular soldiers do the fighting. Other orders, including the mobilization of the home guard, are also included. The Germans are conducting regular siege operations in their attempts to take the Russians' second line trenches before Warsaw. Their mass attacks have coased and their troops, working under the shelet. The German communication neither affirms nor denies the report, saying merely that fighting is st been sank by Russian warships and a mine.

Gen. Villa plans to attack the Mexican border towns opposite Naco and Douglas, Ariz., with the 8,000 troops that accompanied him north. Half of this force has passed through Juarez en route to this force has passed through Juarez en route to Casas Grandes, whence the troops will move overland into Sonora. Gen. Villa explained his plans, which he seemed to regard as friendly to the American government, in a communication telegraphed to Brig. Gen. Scott. Chief of staff of the United States army, who has been waiting at El Paso to confer with the Mexican chief regarding the cessation of fighting on the border. It is reported that Provisional President Gutierrez is virtually a prisoner in the national palace at Mexico City at the will of Villa as the result of a suspicion, which is said to be amply confirmed, that Gutierrez has been plotting with the Carranzista element to join the forces in the field against Villa and Zapata. In a battletoday near Victoria, capital of the state of Tamautipis, Villa forces were put to flight, leaving many dead and wounded on the field, according to constitutionalist advices received in Nuevo Laredo, Mex.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, thtionalist advices received in Nuevo Laredo, Mex.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, has notified Secretary Bryan that the British government, without deciding the question of liability, was planning to pay damages to the family of Walter Smith, the American killed recently by Canadian militlamen while hunting near Fort Eric and to Charles Dorsch, who was wounded at the same time. The three soldiers concerned in the killing were placed under arrest yesterday.

William T. Jerome has received from Attorney-deneral Woodbury of New York an appointment as special deputy attorney-general of the state to rosecute Harry K. Thaw, when he is returned to hat state from New Hampshire.

Arrangements between Great Britain, Italy and the Netherlands have been completed whereby com-merce to the latter two countries from the United States is expected to undergo a minimum of mol-ostetion.

BROOMSTICK LEADER AMONG STALLIONS.

Harry Payne Whitney's Horse Takes Honors of 1914 in Close Contest with Star Shoot and Peep o' Day.

in Close Contest with Star Shoot and Peep o' Day.

The progeny of Broomstick fell a trifle short of crediting him with a total of $100,000 won in the course of the racing of 1914, but what they did win was sufficient to give him the premiership of the American sire list for the second time and in successive years. Even though he did not quite attain the $100,000 mark he came closer to it than any leading stallion has done in any year since 1908. Separated by only the small difference of $223 Star Shoot was victor over Peep O'Day for second place, and it is easy to perceive that Broomstick owes it to his fine daughter, Regret, that both of these imported stallions did not precede him in the list of twenty most successful sires of the year. It is of interest to note that of this list of twenty select sires twelve were new-comers, Knight Errant, Peter Quince, Disguise, Aeronaut, Ultimus, Voter and Woolsthorpe, taking the places held by Uncle, Hamburg, Martinet, Plandit, Ornament, Bannockburn and Fatherless in the similar list of 1913. Had Uncle's two splendid sons Old Rosebud and Little Neplew remained sound he would surely have retained his place in the list, but both were cripleed and unable to do much racing. Star Shoot's family was a big one, sixty-nine of his progeny running for him, while Broomstick only had thirty-one representatives in the racing of the year. Peep O'Day had some smashing good race horses in action, and was fortunate in that his son, David Craig, by taking the valuable International Derby at Dorval Park became one of the chief money-winners of the year. Ogden was second to Broomstick in 1914, it is among the possibilities that he has a chance to figure as the premier himself in 1915. Stalwart finished infinith in the list and is Meddler's most successful son in stud service. He was himself a grand race horse and a great stayer, and his prominence is no more than was to be expected. Yankee sent one of the best fillies of the year to the races in Kaskakia and showed a great increase in money
